You may claim a travel deduction for a trip for medical and other reasons (such as vacation) that started from a prescribed zone and was taken by you or an eligible family member. You can claim up to two personal trips that you took, up to two personal trips by each eligible family member, any number of medical trips taken by you or an eligible family member (no more than two non-medical personal trips taken by an individual (themselves or an eligible family member) in a year can be claimed by all taxpayers). Please provide details for trips taken including the purpose of travel (medical or other), the destination, the dates travelled, the names of the household members travelling, and receipts for all travel expenses. Please refer to the following link for more information <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/news/cra-multimedia-library/individuals-video-gallery/simplified-northern-residents-travel-deduction-webinar.html>.
